Day 1.

Early departure from Split, coffee and refreshment on Rostovo, mountain pass near Bugojno and arrival in Kraljeva Sutjeska where you will have an organized sightseeing of Francis monastery, built in 1340. It includes a museum in which it houses historical treasures, a library which keeps rare and valuable historical records. Sightseeing will continue by visiting the oldest mosque of Mehmed II Fatih from the 15th century and old Bosnian house from the 19th century followed by lunch - buffet made from local specialties along with tasting of local drink called – Shljivovitz. After the lunch tour proceed towards Visoko, or the Bosnian pyramids, a cluster of natural hills in central Bosnia and Herzegovina supposedly the largest human-made ancient pyramids on Earth. Enjoy the organized guided tour of the valley of pyramids and underground tunnels. After the sightseeing you will leave Visoko, and continue to Sarajevo. Accommodation in hotel and dinner. Free night for visiting nightclubs, restaurants, casinos and enjoying Sarajevo's vibrant nightlife.

Day starts with breakfast followed by sightseeing of the Sarajevo city, famous for its traditional, cultural and religious diversity due to which it was sometimes called the "Jerusalem of Europe" or "Jerusalem of the Balkans".

Tour starts on the viewpoint Zmajevac, above Sarajevo with panoramic view and brief lecture about the city: city history, periods, objects and famous people from Sarajevo. Later on, refreshments will be served in „Male Daire“, oriental coffee bar in the heart of Baščaršija, along with nargila and traditional domestic beverages followed by a stroll along Baščaršija and visit to the most attractive locations like Sebilj, Knadziluk street, City hall, Inat kuca, Francis monastery on Bistrik, synagogue, Beg's Mosque, Cathedral. After the walk, there will be an organised visit to the famous Svrzo's house where you will find out everything about the tradition and culture of the old Sarajevo Muslim family along with refreshments and course of „making and drinking Bosnian coffee“. Lunch will be organised in the restaurant Lovac where you will be served with local specialty dishes.

After lunch, departure from Sarajevo towards valley of the river Neretva, with dinner and overnight in Mostar.

Day 3.

Breakfast and organized tour of the city of Mostar, city with rich cultural diversity and influence. It is famous for the architecture from the Otoman empire in the old part of the city, especially known for the Old bridge, built by Hajrudin from the 17th century. It was totally devastated in war in 1993., and rebuilt by UNESCO in 2005. Free visit to the gift shops and shops in the old part of the city.

Option 1

Visit to the Narona museum, with the ruins of the Roman temple Augusteum and 17 marble sculptures. This found has encouraged idea of presentation of this unique archaeological site and architectural monuments and all other archaeological material. It was first museum in Croatia, built in situ. This kind of presentation has spread museum offer of Croatia, and there are not so many similar museums in Europe or rest of the world.

Arrival in the restaurant Villa Neretva, welcome service and small brunch (risotto and pasta), early lunch with music. After the lunch return to Split. End of the program.
